Statement from Arizona Board of Regents President Eileen Klein Offering Best Wishes for the New Year

(Phoenix, AZ) – On behalf of the Arizona Board of Regents, we send our best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year. This past year has been one full of academic success, innovative research and a recommitment to the spirit of higher education.

Our three universities are the critical bridge between our K-12 leaders of tomorrow and a thriving economy. We know 2014 will help build an even more vibrant foundation for learning and discovery. Happy New Year!
